

City Of Hope Spectacular To Feature New Talent

BUCK SHAFFER

WILL STAGE

BENEFIT SHOW

PORTERVILLE - New, young talent will team up with acts playing a return engagement as Buck Shaffer stages the annual City of Hope Spectacular in the Porterville Memorial auditorium Saturday night. Curtain time is 8 p.m.; tickets will be available at the door.

Backing the stage show will be the Fabulous Studio band that toured the United States for the second time last summer, playing for service men throughout the nation, entertaining at the National Press club in Washington, D.C. and playing a concert in the famous Pentagon building.

New talent will include Miss June Fisher, 10-year-old singer and guitar player from Sunnyside school, discovered by Mrs. Allan Coates; Miss June Minnicucci, from San Francisco; Miss Irene Wiley, from Bakersfield college who won the talent division of the 1966 Miss Kern County contest; "The Changing Times," a younger set musical group from Bartlett Junior high; and a Porterville accordian band.

Mack Jenkins will sing with the Studio band for the first time on a City of Hope show; Walter Groshong, at the organ, will be featured in pre-show and intermission music; also featured on the organ will be Chris Beckley.

CAMP NELSON PHONE SERVICE

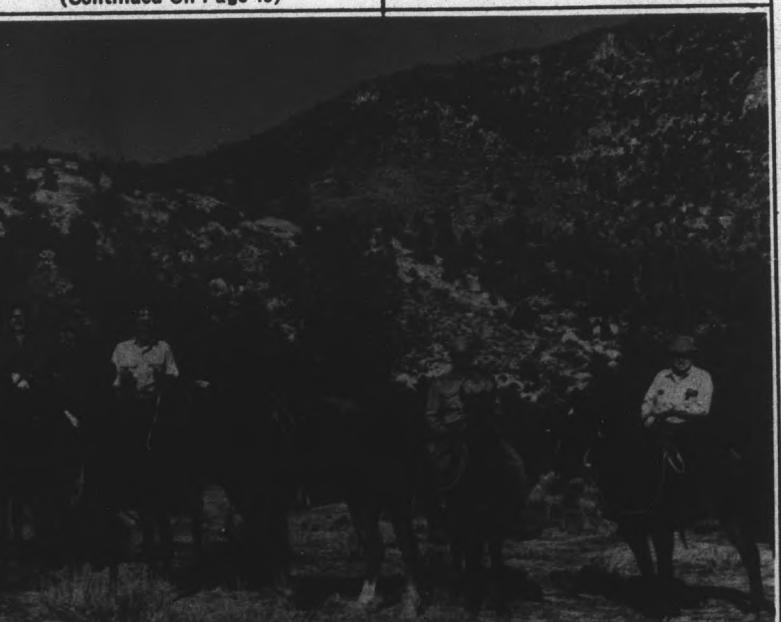

CAMP NELSON - Pacific Telephone's new central office at Camp Nelson will go into operation in May to serve some 300 customers at Camp Nelson, Pierpoint Spring, Cedar Slope, Sequoia Crest, Alpine Village, Quaking Aspen, Ponderosa and Coy Flat. Prefix will be 542; a special directory will be issued to subscribers in the mountain area and Springville, according to Bob Board, Pacific Telephone manager in Porterville.

LINES DRAWN FOR ELECTION

PORTERVILLE - A lively Porterville city campaign for two council seats seemed indicated this week, as four candidates officially entered the race, and with a fifth expected to file before the noon deadline today.

In the race are: James Hanson, travel agent owner; Dr. Dick Spencer, optometrist; Ross Boyd, property developer; and Pete Ferguson, cemetery district manager. Gil Ynigues, flower shop owner, has taken out papers.

SURVEYING WINTER deer range in the Brush creek, Lamont, Chimney creek and Timber creek areas north of Kernville over the past weekend was the above group, from left: Glenn Smith, district ranger at Kernville; Clayton Canfield, Southern Tulare County Sportsmen's association deer committee; Don Bolander, Sequoia National Forest Range manager; John Keck, chairman of the Sportsmen's deer committee; R. J. Owen, Sportsmen's deer committee and a member of the Sequoia Forest Grazing committee; Walker Thomas, Sportsmen's deer committee; Cooper Smith, Sportsmen's association vice president and retired Sequoia Forest Range manager; and George Franklin, State Game manager, district 4. The picture was taken by Grant Birmingham, federal predator control officer. The trip marked the 10th annual winter range survey.

THE FABULOUS Studio band, directed by Buck Shaffer, will back the 1967 version of the City of Hope Spectacular that will be produced by Shaffer on the Porterville Memorial audi-

and Larry Wash; front: Jack Smith, Bill Ingram, Eddie Hunt, Bobby Lincoln, Mack Jenkins, Gary Landers, Mel Gosage, and Larry Todd.

RODEO QUEEN CONTESTANTS SIGNUP FRIDAY

SPRINGVILLE - Contestants for queen of the 1967 Springville rodeo will officially open the contest tomorrow, Friday, night, when they meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial building, Springville, to receive special tickets that they will sell, and to pose for publicity pictures.

Mrs. Carol Sorensen, queen contest chairman, states that entries in the contest will be received until tomorrow night and that any girl who desires to compete but who has not yet filled out a contest form, should be at the Memorial building to sign up.

The contest is open to unmarried girls between the ages of 16 and 21 years who live in Tulare county. Judging for queen will be based equally on horsemanship and on sale of special tickets. All contestants retain 25 per cent of the money from tickets.

DEER RANGE CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

PORTERVILLE - Continuing improvement of the winter deer range in the area north of Kernville was noted over the past weekend when a party of sportsmen, Sequoia Forest officials, and representatives of state and federal wildlife departments rode through the area on a three-day survey.

"The range is in good condition," according to John Keck, chairman of the Southern Tulare County Sportsmen's association deer committee, who was making his 10th annual trip through the area.

"Actually, the range has been showing continued improvement during the past 10 years," Keck said.

Deer population appeared to be lighter than in most previous years, however, deer sighted were in excellent condition. Ratio of bucks, does and fawn appeared to be highly satisfactory in the Brush creek area, however, only

BITTER PILLS

Maybe the future of Tulare Co. won't be mainly agriculture as now known. Farmers best-loved crops are $ and $. We don't care what they grow on, we're versatil.

We're speaking from 4 generations of Calif. farming experience. (We farmed elsewhere before 1851 in case you thought us indigenous like the poppies.)

"We're saving it for dessert."

We have the answer to the endless question about spending so much on space travel and moon trips. Time Magazine of 1/27 explained.

As we read it, garbage and air filth are not matters that great minds care to or are able to solve. Being smart, they plan to move away. Be sure to see that; your mind will become great too.

Lent is here so you can give up the last of your New Year resolutions gracefully.

THE WASTELAND REVISITED

The latest brainstorm of the culture hucksters — this one was broached last week by the Carnegie Foundation — is a proposal to impose a Federal excise tax, ranging from 2 to 5 percent of the manufacturer's price for a television set, to provide funds to "direct and finance expansion of educational video".

One doesn't have to be an uncritical viewer of the commercial television "wasteland" to take a jaundiced view of this particular scheme to nick the taxpayer for his own good. In most urban areas, at least, the public already has access to educational TV; some of its programming is good, some of it is downright boring, and some of it qualifies more accurately as propaganda than education.

A prize example of the latter category was a live broadcast over San Francisco's educational TV station last week by Timothy Leary, high priest of the new LSD religion. Some of Dr. Leary's educational gems follow:

"You can learn more about psychology in a five-hour LSD trip than a lifetime of study" . . . "I would rather have a 15-year-old use it than a 50-year-old. A 15-year-old will use it for kicks, to make love" . . . "Your family wants to cut you down, to narrow your mind" . . . "There has never been a major scientific breakthrough discovered in or around a university" . . . "All students realize that educational institutions are out to narrow your consciousness. Drop out!"

An essential ingredient of education is responsibility on the part of the educators. If the Carnegie Foundation's plan would provide a wider free forum for assorted kooks like Dr. Leary, most TV viewers can be pardoned for preferring to save their money and watch Bonanza.

ROSS BOYD'S CAMPAIGN STATEMENT

I am candidate for the Porterville City Council. I am completely independent and am under no obligation whatsoever to any person, faction or organization.

With my extensive background as a businessman, builder and developer, I am qualified to bring to our City Government aggressive and effective business principals.

I pledge myself to work at all times for real economy within every branch of the City Government.

In the past twenty years I have developed approximately four million dollars worth of properties that are now on the City Tax Rolls. I have developed several subdivisions within the City, multiple dwellings, commercial properties and Tulare County's first shopping center, which I built in Porterville.

My concern with orderly growth and adequate services for the people of Porterville requires me to say that better public relations is much needed for future annexations and expansion.

A City Planning Commission should be representative of the people whom they serve. Too often it is apparent that decisions are rendered by the book instead of logic and practical application. I feel the least government is the best government and that the people are best able to determine their needs.

I ask for your vote so that as your Councilman I can work to make Porterville a stronger economic community, inviting solid growth that will insure jobs and opportunity for ourselves and our children. Please vote April 4.

POULTRY PROJECT COMPETITION FOR COUNTY 4-H CLUBS

VISALIA-Fifteen Tulare County 4-H Club members will raise 1,000 birds as part of their poultry project, according to Ronald S. Knight, Tulare County Farm advisor.

This project, conducted as a contest, will emphasize proper care and management. Members will receive their day-old chicks on February 27. Starting with 50 or 100 birds, depending on facilities available to them, members will keep accurate records on pounds of feed used. Feed conversion cost per bird processed, and finally cost per pound of dressed bird, all become highly important factors in determining the contest winner.

The project will end on May 6, when members display the best six carcasses selected from their project in the Tulare County 4-H Club fair. Two entries will be made - one for carcasses weighing under 2 1/2 pounds, the other a dressed exhibit weighing above 2 1/2 pounds.

Members enrolled in the project this year are: Marjorie Frantz, Buena Vista; Jerry Saylor, Columbine; Kathy Garlock, Ducor; Rod Simmons, East Lynne; Mike and Emma Newsome, Jennifer and Randy Noell, all of Oakdale; Rodney Stephens, Cindy and Lori Randles, Orosi; Giovanna Briano, Frank Borba, and Rodney Valine, all of Rockford; and Douglas Borba, Tulare.

The price of electricity has dropped 34% since 1939.

That's a switch.

Just about everything else has gone up.

But not the price of Edison electricity.

A kilowatt-hour has gone down in price 34% since 1939.*

Then how come your electric bill isn't lower today?

Answer: you're using a lot more electricity today. The typical home uses electricity 40 different ways.

Of course, being investor-owned (we have approximately 145,000 stockholders, many of whom are customers) gives Edison an added incentive.

We have to do our level best to keep electricity abundant and low in cost.

The "boss" is all around us.

*The average cost of a kilowatt-hour of electricity to Edison's residential customers today is 34.4% lower than in 1939.

OUR TOWN

By Ruth Loyd

Sandy Ward and Bill Lake were having their palms read. This was rather difficult as the Jade Room was jumping, and Gang Sue kept singing "Oh You Beautiful Doll" in Chinese. Jan Fitch, at the piano, was accompanying Gang with her lovely mellow voice, and the palmist didn't know what she was talking about. Gay Lake didn't believe in fortune telling, and she hurt the palmist's feelings. Palmists are very sensitive. It all ended up by giving Bill a new name. He is now known as Success Lake, and the huge body of water to our east is named after him.

Everybody seemed to have a birthday that nite.

We sang "Happy Birthday to You" so many times we finally learned the words. Emma Nuckles insisted it was her birthday too, but we happen to know it is the ninth, and anyone who wants to send her anything, send it on the ninth. Just anything. She's not fussy. We sang to Mildred Roberts, and Floyd and Loyd. There were three others, but I'm an inept reporter and I didn't get their names. Sorry about that, favorite editor. Floyd Pickard, the Jade Room's Own, received some interesting gifts. I didn't quite get the padlock bit. The Loyd, of this interesting bit of reporting, is mine.

Have you ever heard Gay Lake and Martha Ward sing? Their close harmony is really good. I wish I could do good portraiture. I would love to paint Martha. I think she is just beautiful. Sings good too.

Now I don't really mean to tell you where to go on your vacation this summer, but really you should try playing on a houseboat up on the Delta. Our previous experience with boats consisted of an afternoon with a row boat, but the owner of the houseboat had great faith in us, and we came back without a scratch. There are about a thousand miles of waterways in the Delta, and if you do as you are told you don't get too lost. Most of the people you meet don't know any more than you do, so it gets a little hilarious.

The house boats are beautiful with all the comforts of a lovely trailer. The big motors will go fast enough to tow a skier, if you like to ski behind a houseboat, and slow enough for you to make up your mind before you crash into a landing. At night you tie up to a tree, throw out the anchor, start the fried potatoes and onions on the nice stove while your better half starts the barbecue, and throws out his line to fish. There you are when the sun goes down. You rather expect natives to peer out from the bushes on the bank.

After you have eaten and settled down you hear all kinds of jungle noises, and the slap of the water against the hull. In the morning you pull up against another bank and pick blackberries for breakfast.

The owners of those huge expensive cruisers take a dim view of you scratching up their lovely paint against the dock. If you want to keep busy there is plenty to do, but if you just want to do nothing, it is perfect for that. Many boats were covered with children. It is a wonderful way for a family to have fun together. We remember our houseboat trip as one of our most favorite vacations. Now I want to go again, of course.

NIPPY WEATHER SAYS...

"These money-saving tips from the Gas Company can help you keep heating costs down."

Turn your furnace control down at night • Draw draperies, at night, over windows and sliding glass doors, to reduce loss of heat through the glass • When you're not using the fireplace, close the flue • Fix hot water faucets so they won't leak or drip (you'll save on both water and gas).

Remember heating with gas costs you only about 1/3 as much as any other modern heating method—even though you're using 4 to 7 times as much gas as on a typical summer day!

HIGH SCHOOL WRESTLERS
ON WAY TO ANOTHER TITLE

In 1961 Darryl Williams signed on at Porterville High school as a biology teacher and wrestling coach. That year his Panther grunt and groaners finished Central Yosemite League competition in fifth place. That was the last time the Williams-coached crew finished out of the money.

In 1962 they were third, and the next two years saw the Panthers mop up CYL competition and take home the championship title for two consecutive years. In 1965 the Panthers were second and they are currently steaming along with a 7-0 record and are taking dead aim on William's third undisputed championship in six years.

"We need one more win to gain at least a piece of the title," Williams said. "We have good balance, have stayed healthy all season, and if we get a few breaks, we should take it all."

The rugged Panthers are led by Everett Rabon, a tough all-league football guard last fall, who wrestles at either 145 or 154 pounds. This junior, who is the team's co-captain along with senior Jeff Wall, is unbeaten this year and was unscored upon until recently. Rabon is a good bet to carry PUHS's orange and green all the way to the valley title.

The Panthers are a hard-nosed crew and are likely to remain that way for the next couple of years. The varsity line-up has just two seniors. The remaining weights are taken up by five juniors, three sophomores, and two freshmen. Freshman Mark Dames is the varsity 95 pounder. Mark's record is not particularly outstanding, but the youngster is strong and is learning fast and should be a tough spot in the PUHS line -up for the next three years. Steve Ensslin holds down the 103 pound spot. The junior has been a varsity starter for all three years. His 27 wins make him second only to the tremendous Gary Dove, who notched a school record of 38 wins before he graduated. Abe Cortez wrestles in the 112 pound position and is unbeaten in league matches. Cortez is also a junior and has been a varsity performer for all three years. Williams will start junior Vince Martinez at 120 pounds. Vince has one league loss and like Ensslin and Cortez is a three year veteran of varsity competition.

Duane Storey, another rugged junior with an undefeated league record, wrestles at the 129 pound weight. Senior co-captain Jeff Wall holds the 133 pounds position and he also has not lost a CYL match this year. Wall took second in the very hot competition of the Fresno State College tournament earlier in the season. Steve O'Connor, a sophomore hustler just up from the junior varsity where he was undefeated, wrestles at the 154 pound weight. Another sophomore, Fred Wall, holds the 165 position and has only two losses in seven CYL matches. A third sophomore, Doyle Nelms, wrestles at the 175 pound weight. The big second-year man has lost only one match in league competition and looks like a real comer. A couple of freshmen, John Keehan and Jeff Keck, have shared the 191 pound position until it was discovered that Keehan was too young to wrestle at that weight. Big Buck Bennett, a fine tackle for Football Coach Sim Iness last fall, holds the unlimited position.

Coach Williams feels that much of the success of his varsity wrestling program is due to the excellent production of wrestlers from the junior varsity ranks. The Panther JV's have taken the CYL title for the past five years, with coach Bill Jamison calling the shots.

The Panthers wind up their dual meet schedule during the next two weeks as they take on Hanford in the Bullpup gym tonight, and host Tulare next Tuesday night at 7:30 in the PUHS gym.

Moderate movement of lettuce is reported from Imperial valley.

Illegal Xmas Tree
Cutting Brings Fine

PORTERVILLE - Frank M. DiScala, 40, of San Pedro, was fined $550 in Porterville Justice Court following his conviction for illegally cutting 29 Christmas trees in the Sequoia National forest. The cutting took place early last November near Mule Meadow, about 10 miles northeast of California Hot Springs. The complaint was made by District Ranger Bruce Waldron of California Hot Springs.

SCHOOL TAX INCREASES TO BE VOTED ON

EARLIMART - Voters in the Earlimart school district will decide in an election February 14 whether or not to increase the district tax by 25 cents, raising the rate from $1.65 to $1.90 for a period of five years.

In the Allensworth school district, voters will ballot April 18 on whether to continue the present $2.00 district tax for a period of five years.

DEER RANGE

does were seen in the Chimney creek and Timber creek areas, indicating that possibly a future problem exists because of the lack of bucks and fawns.

Members of the party speculated that deer population seemed light because high country winter has not been severe and deer herds have not moved as far south as in other years.

The general area is the winter range for the Mono-ache herd, that moves in the summer up the East side of Big Kern river through the Little Whitney, and Templeton meadow country on into Sequoia park, and the Kern river herd whose summer range is the Little Kern River basin and the Willow Meadow country.

Object of the annual survey trip is to check on winter range conditions, and condition of the deer herds, providing information used in game management.

As sidelights of the trip, deer were tame compared to other years; at one point a cow was found killed possibly two weeks earlier and eaten by lions, also the cow's four or five-month-old calf, killed apparently shortly before the party rode onto the scene.

Road north from Kernville was "terrible," with at least 10 of the 17 miles badly damaged by flood waters of the December storm. Weather was pleasantly warm, and the sky was crystal clear.

MC LAIN HEADS,
OLIVE GROWERS

VISALIA - Roy McLain was elected president of the Consolidated Olive Growers at a recent organizational meeting in Exeter. The group was formed last September by a merger of the Lindsay Ripe Olive company, which McLain headed as president; the Orinda Olive Growers association, and the V.R. FISH AND GAME GROUP TO DISCUSS
WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT ON PRIVATE LANDS AT BAKERSFIELD MEETING

SACRAMENTO - A proposed policy on the management and utilization of fish and wildlife resources on private lands will be on the agenda of the California Fish and Game commission when it meets tomorrow, Friday, in Bakersfield.

The meeting is scheduled for 10 AM in the Supervisors' chambers, County Court house.

The DFG, which proposed the policy, said about half the land in the state is under some form of public

The Springville rodeo queen will receive $100, a crown and a trophy. First princess and second princess will receive a trophy; contestants will select "Miss Congeniality," who will receive a bracelet.

Contest winners will be announced at a Coronation ball in the Memorial building the evening of April 1; horsemanship judging will be held in the Springville rodeo arena on March 18 at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Sorenson advises all contestants to wear western clothes tomorrow night.

Meanwhile, plans for the 1967 Springville rodeo are

The management policy as proposed by the DFG stipulates that the Commission recognizes and supports the landowner's right to say who shall or shall not have access to his land. The policy also offers DFG technical assistance in carrying out management practices that will benefit fish and wildlife.

The Springville rodeo association is composed of representatives from farm and social organizations in Springville.

Average Incomes Have Doubled;
Food Costs Up Only 25 Per Cent

SAN FRANCISCO - Average incomes in the U.S. have doubled since 1950 while food costs have risen only 25 per cent, according to figures gathered by the Council of California Growers.

Even in 1966, the year of the housewives' "revolt," retail food prices increased by about five per cent while disposable personal income rose approximately eight per cent.

The Economic Research service of the U.S. department of agriculture, source of this information, also reported that Americans today are spending only about 18.2 per cent of their income after taxes on food. This compares with 27 per cent in 1947. ERS predicts that the 18.2 per cent ratio is not expected to increase in 1967, despite slightly higher food prices.

The National Livestock and Meat board recently issued a booklet titled "Facts About Food Prices," which states that "an hour of labor today purchases about 70 per cent more beef and 75 per cent more pork than it did in 1947."

The booklet also reported that, "Today's factory worker earns the cost of his monthly grocery basket in less than 37 hours, the smallest number in history. Fifteen years ago it took him 60 hours."

Looking out from our warm fire to that cold fog we wonder how so many gardeners have the great strength to actually get out and plant things. Must be the tough ancestry coming through, or so much house work that it's the lesser of two evils. Of course you are obligated to prune, spray, and perform the dormant season jobs in spite of rain, snow, or the dark of night but not even the nursery association says you have to plant something.

However we would be most happy if you would set out a thing or two. Preferably a four dollar rose bush or a fifteen dollar mulberry tree but even a fifteen cent package of tomato seeds would be an expression of interest. While you are here we might entice you to purchase some beautiful Dutch Gloxinia bulbs or some of the canna lilies that we mentioned last week. These canna propagate faster than wire coat hangers in a dark closet and are ideal to brighten a neglected spot in your yard.

To save work later you might consider investing in some weed spray. We have many kinds for many purposes and would be glad to help you guess which one might be best for you. It takes less material while the weeds are small so the effort shouldn't be put off 'til mid summer. However if you wait too long we still have garden hoes, hula hoes, grass whips, and weeders to get the job done. These are also cheaper than the analysts couch for getting rid of frustrations caused by politicians near and far. Come see them soon.

RECIPE

In a health emergency, the little slip of paper on which your physician writes his prescription is priceless. You wouldn't part with it under any circumstances.

However, once the emergency has passed, human nature being what it is, you are apt to forget how valuable the prescription really was. Maybe you even grumble a little at its out-of-pocket cost, failing to remember the doctor's professional skill, the countless hours of pharmaceutical research and many other factors that made the "recipe" possible in a health crisis.

Permit our prescription department to fill your next "recipe for health."

RECOGNITION AWARD to young people of the community for work in their church was made last week by the Porterville Kiwanis club to Mark and Stephen Cameron, with their efforts as ushers, candlelighters, attendance at church services and at Sunday school, and their help in church pageantry cited. With them is Ralph Aldridge, Porterville Kiwanis club president, left, and the Rev. Claude A. Brown, chairman of the Support of Churches committee and pastor of the Poplar Methodist church in which the boys serve. Each month the Kiwanis club will invite a church of the community to present the names of young people who are serving in the church. Attending the Kiwanis club meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron, Poplar area ranchers and parents of the award winners.

4-H TO WORK FOR HEART FUND

PRairie CENTER — Twenty-one members of the Prairie Center 4-H club will participate in the Heart Fund campaign in the Strathmore area as their community project, under the leadership of Mrs. Samuel B. Aikens, drive chairman for that area.

The following 4-H members will head the drive; Barbara Hansen, chairman, Kathy Blua, Sheila Fancher, Renee Rodriguez, Linda Milanesio, Jean McCrillis, Charlottee McCowan, and their advisor, Mrs. Karl Hansen. The door to door drive will start February 19 and conclude February 27.

On Saturday, January 28, members of the Prairie Center club who have dairy projects participated in a dairy project tour. Bruce Ward and Calvin Hiltz, who are the dairy leaders, advised the 4-Hers on feeding, grooming, and caring for their project animals. Gail Ann Ward, junior leader, explained to the members the steps in training their animals for showmanship.

A visit was made to each of the participating member's projects. Helpful suggestions were made and in a few weeks another project meeting will be held to check on improvement.

Taking part in the tour were Jeff Meik, who has a Jersey project; Matt Meik, who is a new member

Prices Received By Farmers Mostly

SACRAMENTO — Prices received by California farmers as of January 15 were fairly stable compared with a month earlier, according to the California Crop and Livestock Reporting service. Most price changes were relatively small with best gains reported for oats, sorghum grain, dry beans, potatoes, and lemons. Most significant declines were for cotton, hay, oranges, grapefruit, lambs, turkeys, and eggs.

Compared with a year ago, prices received for most farm commodities at mid-January were substantially to sharply higher. Hay and cottonseed made the sharpest gains with grains, potatoes, alfalfa seed, citrus fruits, beef cattle and calves, milk cows, dairy products, and wool also substantially higher than a year ago. Lower prices were received for dry beans, cotton, hogs, lambs, turkeys and eggs.

A surprise guest from Fresno State college has also been booked for the show.

Returning to the City of Hope Spectacular will be; The Joaquin Singers; the talented Spanish dancer, Marie Aントoinette; The Shandells, a girl singing trio; Comedian Bill Pukmel; Porterville high school majorettes in a new routine; The Countrymen; Arvada Eggman; Alice Peterson; Barbara Carillo; the Ultra Sonics; and Master of Ceremonies Bill Rodgers.

Dean Semple will again have his Madrigal Singers on stage; Gary Garcia, the great talent find of last year's show, will also play a return engagement.

Purpose of the show is to give local talent a chance at the spotlight and possibly start a career toward bigger things, and, also to raise money for the City of Hope pilot medical facility at Duarte - a facility

Incumbents in the two council seats that will be open are Mayor Aubrey M. Lumley and Bill Rodgers, who are completing two terms on the council. Neither will seek reelection.

Holdover members of the council are: Vice Mayor Mac Williams, Marty Martin and Bill Benson. City council terms are for four years, however, terms are staggered, and a city election is held every two years.

Election day is April 4. The old council will meet on April 10 to canvass election returns and seat the new councilmen. The new council will then organize by electing a mayor and vice mayor.

Five consolidated precincts within the city have been set up for the April 4 election. April 3 is the last day that absentee ballots can be received at the Porterville city hall. March 6 through March 28 is the period in which absentee ballots can be secured at the city hall.

Grapefruit and canned Salmon are the plentiful-foods-to feature in markets of the nation during the week of February 5-11.
